Buy before you board

Ticket inspections are carried out regularly and if you board the train without a valid ticket, you risk prosecution. The National Rail Conditions of Travel state that conductors can only sell you an Anytime Single ticket, without discounts, to a station directly served by the train that you are on, or as a minimum to the next station stop where you must leave the train.

If you board at a station where ticket buying facilities are not available, you can buy a full range of tickets from the conductor on your train or at the end of your journey.

It's your responsibility to make sure you have a valid ticket: #buybeforeyouboard
